The Art and Soul of Santa Fe - A Special Setting for Your Special Day

Rental Fees for 2018

The New Mexico Museum of Art is located at 107 W. Palace Avenue in Santa Fe (on the historic plaza). Built in 1917, it is admired for its New Mexico Pueblo Revival style architecture and is listed as a national historic landmark. For generations, St. Francis Auditorium has been a centerpiece of Santa Fe's cultural and social life as a community space.

St. Francis Auditorium - A traditional church-like setting, in a secular space, the St. Francis Auditorium is most suitable for concerts, lectures, slide and video presentations, literary events, seminars and an absolutely incredible wedding venue.

Maximum seating capacity is 450 including the Balcony which has seating for 72. Rental Fee $1000.00

Center Courtyard - Perfect outdoor space for ceremonies, dinners or receptions. Beautiful covered portals (porches) surround the perimeter of courtyard where art is also featured for guest enjoyment. Along the portal border, a lovely variety of plants and flowers bloom from spring through summer and into fall for a profusion of color. In the center is a sparkling fountain carved from granite.

Maximum occupancy is 125. Rental Fee $750

The O'Shaughnessy (East) Sculpture Garden - Smaller, intimate setting for ceremonies, cocktails, or a small reception. Elegant stone work and sculptures from the region.
